Armed Forces

Army Pvt. I.C. Eddie Padron, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Padron, 22112 Hansom Ave., arrived in Vietnam Oct. 21 with his unit, Company C, 459th Signal Battalion.

The unit will be attached to the 4th Infantry Division. Pvt. Padron, a cableman with the company, entered on active duty in January of this year and was last stationed at Ft. Huachuca, Ariz. He attended Carson High School in Torrance.

Airman I.C. Thomas G. Hatt of Torrance is now on duty with U.S. combat air forces in Southeast Asia.

Airman Hatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Hatt of 3714 W. 225th St., is assigned to a forward combat base. He is a weapons mechanic. The airman is a graduate of South High School.

Raymond A. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Young, 25303 Woodward Ave., Lomita, was promoted to captain Oct. 31 at Ft. Hamiliton, N.Y., where he is attending a nine-week orientation course at the Army Chaplain School.

The promotion came as the result of a recent Department of the Army regulation stipulating that all Army chaplains presently serving on active duty be promoted to captain on the last day of Oct., 1966.

His studies at the school include psychology and counseling, methods of instruction, and principles of character guidance. Instruction is also being given in standard military areas such as administration, map and aerial photo reading, drill, and techniques of supply.

Capt. Young, whose wife, Marolyn, lives in Anaheim, received a bachelor of arts degree in 1959 from California Baptist Seminary at Covina.

JAMES S. BARBER
Marine Pvt. James S. Barber completed four weeks of individual combat training at Camp Pendleton Sept. 29. Barber is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Barber of 3834 W. 242nd St.

Airman Allan B. Rogers, whose mother, Mrs. Freda M. Potter, resides at 1021 W. Torrance Blvd., has been selected for training at Amarillo AFB, Tex., as an Air Force aircraft maintenance specialist. The airman, a 1966 graduate of Narbonne High School, recently completed basic training at Amarillo.

CLINTON C. BROWNELL
Marine Pvt. Clinton C. Brownell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan L. Shaw of 22039-B Nadine Circle, has completed four weeks of individual combat training at Camp Pendleton.

JAMES J. POLSTON
Marine Pvt. James J. Polston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Polston of 2058 W. 238th St., was graduated Oct. 4 from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego. He will be assigned for four weeks of combat training.

Seaman Appren, Thomas R. Kratville, USCG, son of Mrs. Alberta Kratville of 1122 Cerise Ave., has been enrolled in the Electronics Technician School at the U. S. Coast Guard Training Center, Groton. Upon completion of the 24-week course, he will be transferred to a Coast Guard cutter or shore station where he will practice his specialty and gain practical experience enabling him to progress in rate.

Marine Private Thomas L. Erickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Erickson of 23026 Dana Court, has been graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego. He will now undergo four weeks of individual combat training and four weeks of basic training in his military job field before being assigned to a permanent unit.

Army Seeking Men to Serve in Artillery

Young men with training or experience in metal work, mechanical drawing or drafting, mathematics, and auto mechanics and operations are being sought for training as field artillery crewmen by the Army, according to Sgt. Arnold P. Rognstad, local Army recruiter.

Men with a background in these fields should find such skills helpful in qualifying for training in this important Army function, Sergeant Rognstad said.

Torrance recruiters are located at 1319 1/2 Sartori Ave.

More Training Jobs Get Okay

An additional 2,520 training positions have been authorized for California under the Manpower Development and Training Act, the Federal Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training has announced. The total allocation of MDTA funds for California now totals about $16.7 million for the current fiscal year.

Marine Pvt. David P. Alsop, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Alsop of 1717 Lincoln, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.
